RECORDS OF IMMANUEL CHURCH
NEW CASTLE, DELAWARE

Compiled by Joan Zerbe

The material presented here was compiled from the records of Immanuel Church, New Castle, Delaware. It includes birth, baptism, marriage and burial records from the parish registers dated 1714-1824, 1824-1867, 1867-1899, 1899-1909, 1909-1931, 1931-1985.

The following information has been compiled and is available from the Church office but has not been presented in this publication: communicants, confirmations and parent's names of brides and grooms.

Since many records of burials in the 1714-1824 period are missing, we have presented the following notable inscriptions: that of the Rev. George Ross, first rector of Immanuel and Captain Richard Halliwell, first Rector's Warden, both memorial plaques appear within the church. Those of George Read, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, Jehu Curtis, whose inscription was written by Dr. Benjamin Franklin and Hercules Couatts, the earliest inscription, may be found in the Churchyard.

Curtis, Jehu

To the Memory of Jehu Curtis, Esq'r.

Late speaker of the Assembly,

A Judge of the Supreme Court,

Treasurer and Trustee of the Loan Office.

Who departed this life November 18, 1753 aged 61 years.

"If to be prudent in council,

Upright in judgement,

Faithful in trust,

Give value to the publick man

If to be sincere in friendship,

Affectionate to relations,

And kind to all around him

Make the private man amiable

Thy death O Curtis,

As a general loss

Long shall be lamented"

This epitaph was written by Dr. Benjamin Franklin.

Coutts, Hercules

NOTE: Translation taken from Holcomb.

Traveler what do you inquire

Known our friend

Hercules Coutts

Was born in Montrose in Great Britain

Thence he came to this Colony

at New Castle

In the discharge of his duties

He was indefatigable

in temper forbearing; in manner courteous.

In this country he filled many trusts

Civil as well as military.

He yielded to a premature fate

Of fever and running dysentery

The 30th day of September anno Domini 1707.
